Mr. Scanlon:
mmmmmm
Hey what's up? just wanted to say "hi" and
"thanks" for listening to me
talk endlessly about trivial stuff. Anyways, I'll see you next year so we can talk during studies. Bye.
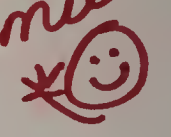
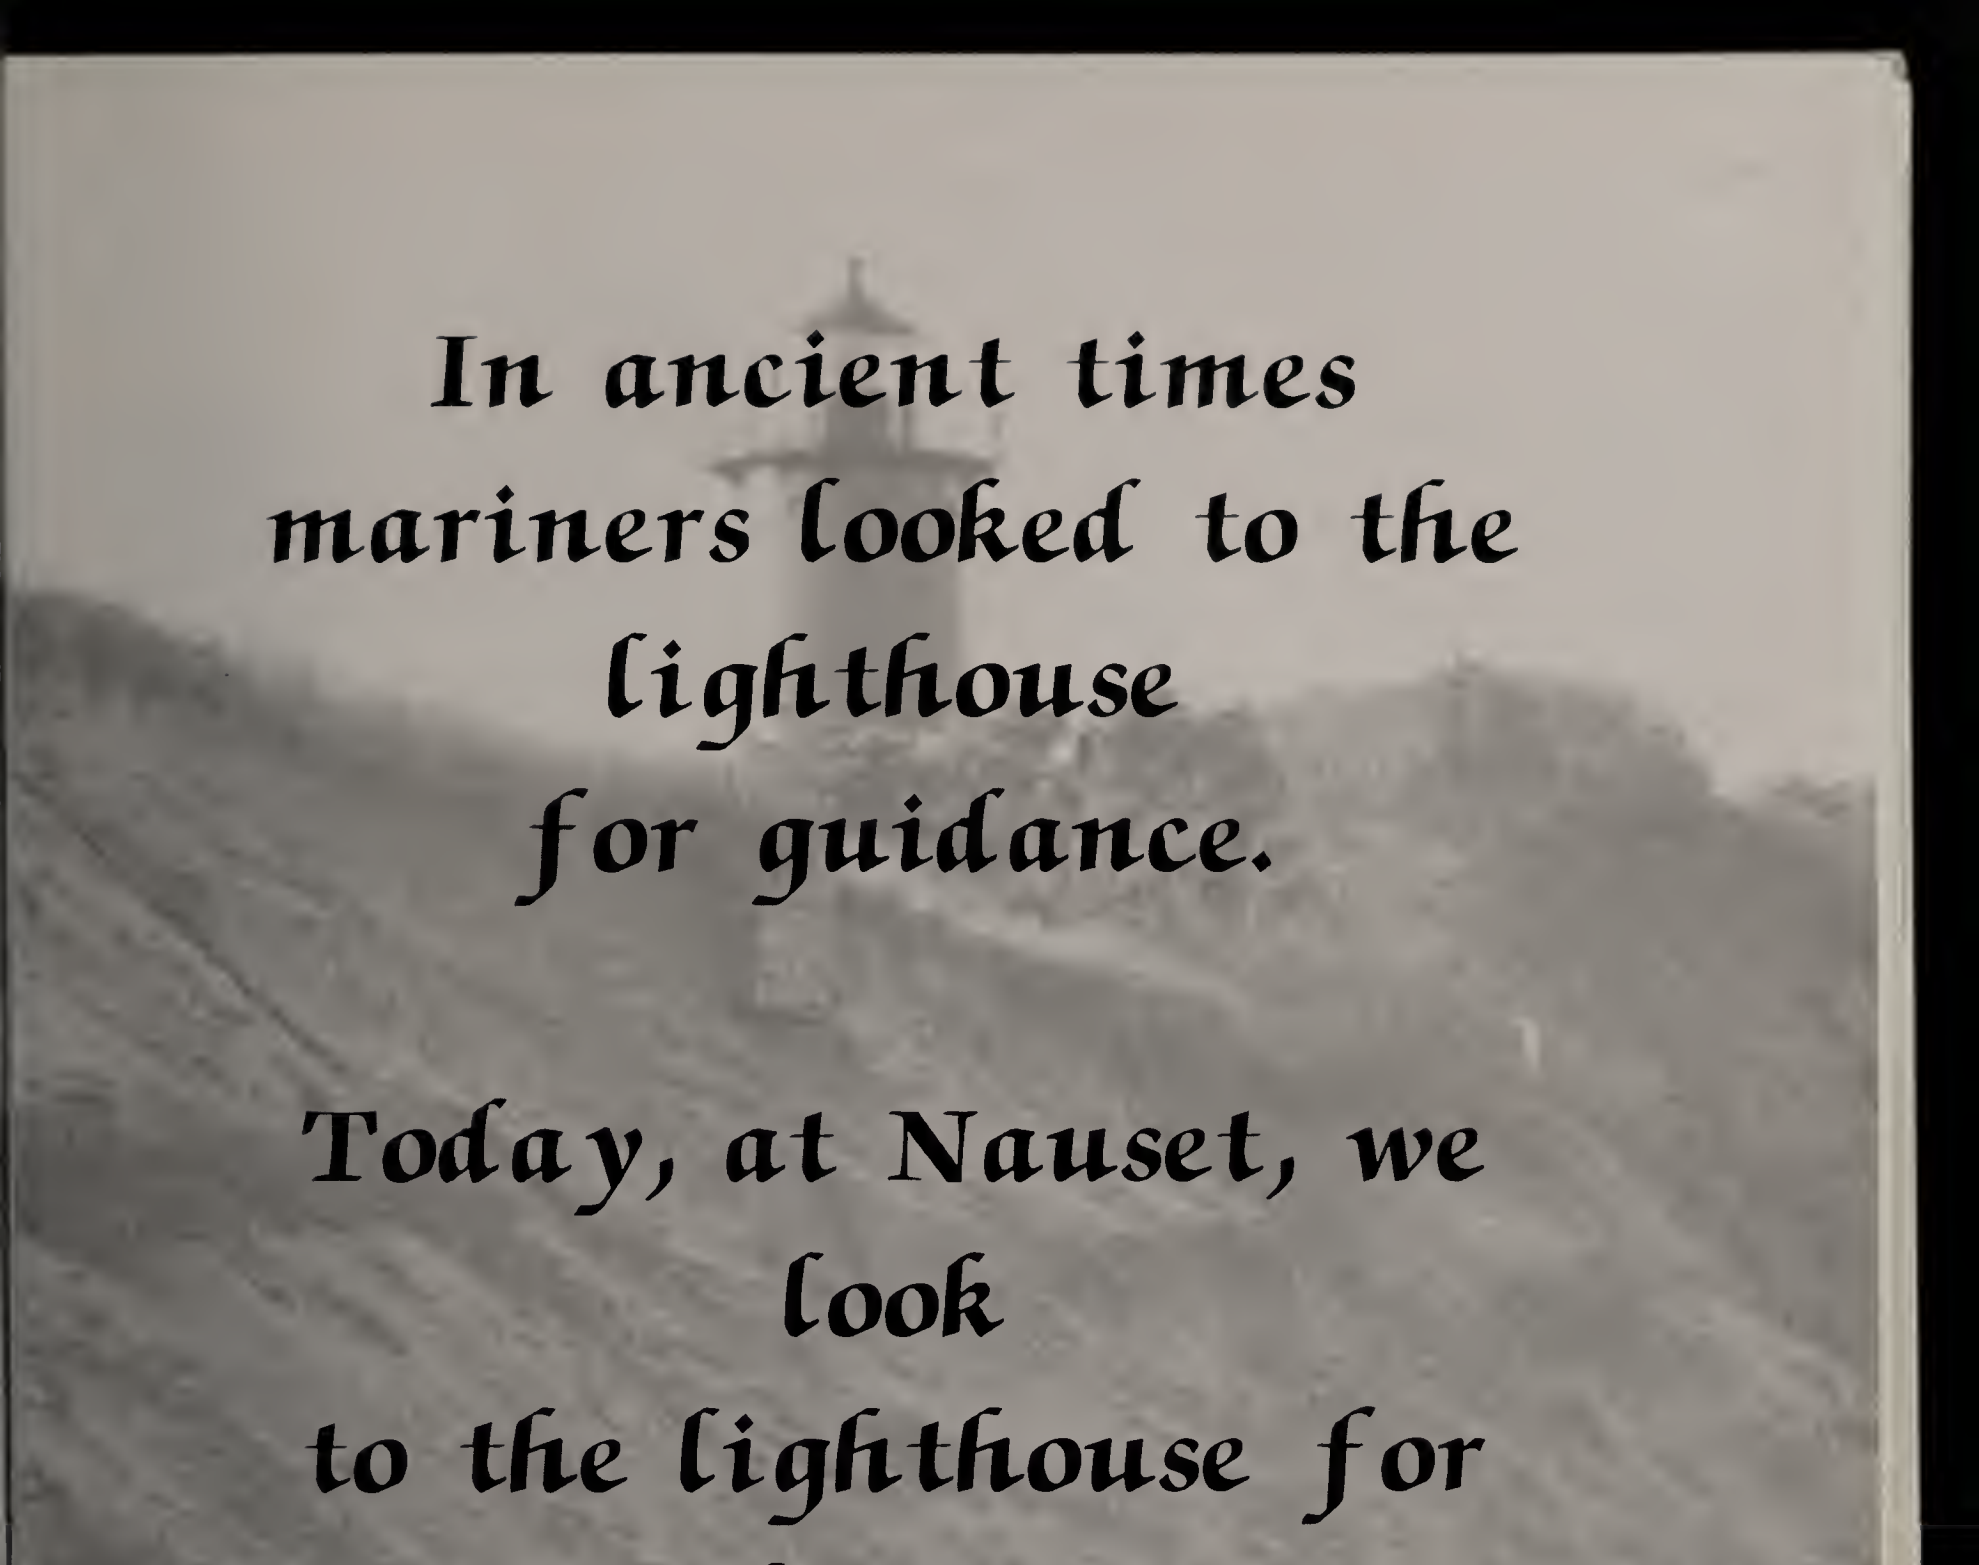
Love,
Andrea

keep on smiling





In ancient times
mariners looked to the lighthouse
for guidance.

Today, at Nauset, we look to the lighthouse for home,
family, and memories of our high school years.

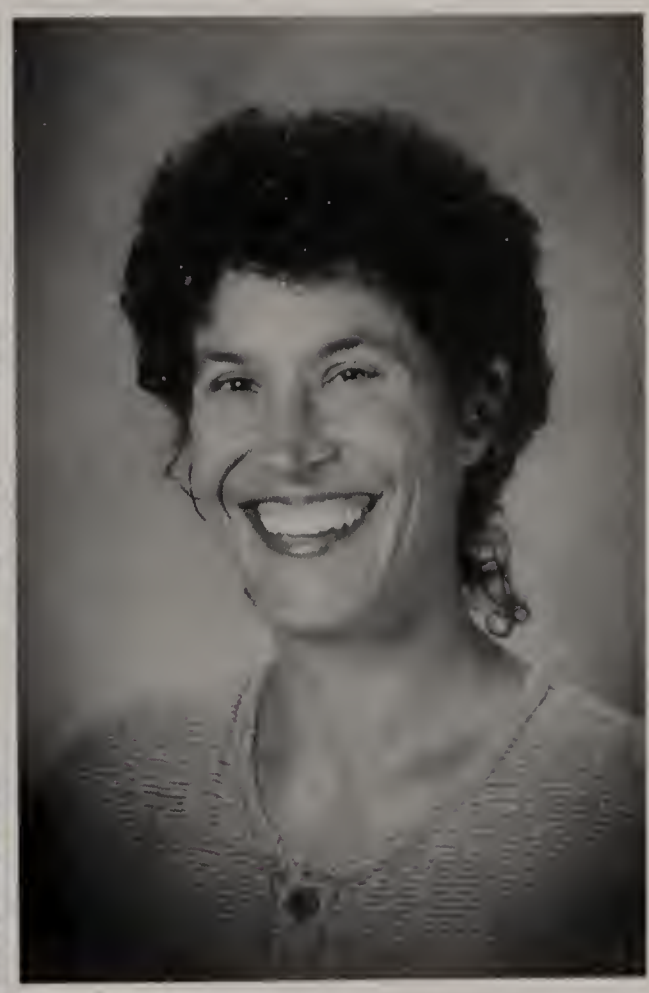
Nauset Regional High School
Nauset Tides 1995

Each one of her students is greeted with a warm and caring smile. Her charisma lights up the room as she gracefully leads her students into a greater understanding of art and what it means to be an artist. From helping a sculpture class, to planning a fine and applied arts night, or just talking to a student that needs her support, Ms. Pottoff has touched us all - and shown us that different can and is beautiful.



Carol Potoff's perpetual smile brings joy to her students and co-workers alike.

HOMECOMING GAMES

It only took a spark...and the Nauset spirit was ignited. "Pep" was the key word at the rally. The freshmen, sophomores, and juniors made a valient attempt, but in the end it was the seniors who took home the prize for the most spirit. "Wild and wooly", the seniors gave proof that behind a veil of smoke, there is always a fire.

At the games, each class, and some extracurricular clubs sold food to raise money. Over the crowd once could hear the rambunctious shouts of "Hamburgers!", "Baked foods!", "Cotton candy!". All mouth watering treats to satisfy the palate. The Field Hockey team put up a fair fight, tying Harwich 2-2. Both boys and girls soccer "reeled in" the Provincetown Fishermen. The boys won 3-1, while the girls lit the night on fire with an amazing 9-0. Nauset's first football team in decades had their first game against Nantucket Saturday morning. Nauset is looking forward to an exciting football season and many more to come!

all went so fast,
And in the end,
as the seniors said,
Nauset kicked some a__.

HOMECOMING DANCE

All that glitters is not gold ...

Everyone glittered that Saturday evening, September 30, 1995, at the Homecoming dance. Eight hundred Nauset students grooved to the rhythm in a Parisian atmosphere. It was the shining finale to an amazing Homecoming weekend.

Launi Condit and Ben Andrulot stole the show, by taking home the coveted crowns. The rest of the court glimmered under cameras and cheers.

After the dance, the night sky was alive with the lights of parties. Celebrations lasted till dawn.

As a last Homecoming for seniors, it was a night that will forever be with them; and for the underclassmen, it was one that they will hope to relive in years to come.

So, in the everlasting words of one senior, "Vive le noir!"

Ah, I could try to come up with all the witticisms & nonsensicalities.I'd like to say NO REGRETS-but I can't-I don't think any of us really can.But, you guys just think of all the ALG trips,Halloweens,the plays & all-night cast parties, P-town,Boston, Nantucket, the birthdays, the notes, the silliness, living inour DREAM WORLD, giving out flowers, ribbons in our hair, the rediculous crushes, deep conversations in the middle of the night, frolicking on Tonset, loving the ART room, living for DRAMA & lunchtime, trying to come up with everything we could possibly do together in these last fleeting MOMENTS when It's ok to still be a kid.You guys know who you are-I don't have to tell you:Don't ever be a GROWN-UP.High school is life's dress rehearsal & now the house lights have gone down & the curtain is about to open...

Mistakes happen. You are not perfect. Acknowledge the mistake, say you're sorry, and make amends. Never whisper to the deaf or wink to the blind. A job well-done is its own reward. So reward yourself. Love your neighbor, but don't pull down the fence. We can do anything we want to if we stick to it long enough. All the world's a stage. Know your part. Don't just plod through the day. Dance! Success comes in cans. I can do this! A sense of humor is the most powerful weapon against frustration celebrate your successes through out the day. Do one to others as they do one to you. Take a break: your worth it.

"Mama whispered, "Time will ease your pain. Life's about changing nothing ever stays the same."

As the old man walked the beach at dawn he noticed a young woman ahead of him picking up starfish & flinging them into the sea. Finally catching up with the youth, he asked her why she was doing this. The answer was that the starfish would die if left till the morning sun. But the beach goes for miles and there are millions of starfish, countered the man, how can your efforts make any difference. The young woman looked at the starfish in her hand & threw it softly into the waves. It makes a difference to this one she said. - F.Fields Abby you're not an only child; we're sisters. When I first came to Nauset many people thought I was the quiet, shy, intelligent type. So I'd like to take this opportunity to tell you about the real me.I stink at math but I have a damn good sense of humor. I've heard a lot of kids say they don't like Cape Cod because it's boring. I know our beautiful beaches can get tiresome but to me Cape Cod is like my old Volvo, it doesn't look too exciting but I can remember passing many a Beamer and Porsche. # Winter Wonderland

Feathered , Fancy, and Fabulous...

Nauset's WinterWonderland was an extravaganza to remember.

As limos and cars arrived, the formal dresses and ties showed themselves gracefully as friends came together to share a night of pure wonder.

Nauset's gym was transformed into a true wonderland: white and twinkling, the bubbly balloons were not the only ones to sway to the music. Rock, Rap, Pop, and Oldies but Goodies; there was music for everyone to shake their "thang."

Then, like the first snowfall of winter, the wonderful night in wonderland was over, but it will be a lasting memory and a new Nauset tradition.

Coming into the light.....

As the school year began, the freshmen were not the only ones to adjust to the new environment. The teachers and the students were hit with block scheduling. Instead of having seven periods a day with forty five minute classes, the schedule became eighty-five minutes long with four blocks a day. This plan was discussed last school year, and was put into effect in September. Some people agreed with this new idea, some disagreed. Others were just going to give it a chance.

German Exchange Trip

What a way to escape the dull entrapment of a frosty Cape Cod February -- three weeks engulfed in a foreign culture!! Eighteen Nauset students, most with a pathetically minute German vocabulary, limited to "hello", "goodbye", "please", and "dog", flew to Frankfurt on February 7th to meet our German exchange partners and their families. We were lucky this year - the two schools, Nauset and the Gymnasium Am Wirteltor in Duren, did an exceptional job matching the partners up; everyone got along wonderfully with each other and thoroughly enjoyed the full three weeks.

We were there for Karneval, a five day celebration complete with outrageous costumes. We also took a four day trek to Bavaria to visit Heidelberg, Nuremberg, and Munchen. This was an experience that I will always look back upon fondly, and I encourage anyone who is open-minded and adventurous to go next year!

"Nauset is so different than my school at home. It's not better or worse, just different. In Spain we live only for the weekend, while at Nauset school life is center stage. I haven't grown close to too many people, but those I have will be my friends for a long time. Mr. Wood "eres cojonudo." To my other teachers, thank you for helping me along the way. Thank you to my American family, I am going to miss you when I leave. Nunca os olvidare."

Drama

"I believe in the theater; I believe in it as the first glamorizes of thought. It restores dramatic dynamics and their relations to life size."

Over the years the Nauset Players have established themselves as a truly unique and diverse group of people. Drama attracts people to all mediums of the stage.

For many people drama isn't just a mere after school activity, it is a passion that is carried thoughout their life. The devotion of the Nauset Players is a living entity that thrives no matter what the circumstances.

Establishing itself among the acting community, the drama club has successfully executed such shows as Little Shop of Horrors, Hamlet, Fame, and Sabrina Fair. They have multiple awards at the Mass. High School Drama Festival, including those of best actress and actor, best special effects, and friendlist cast. This year they hope to win applause and awards with their festival show "The Elephant Man".

For years to come the Nauset Players cry shall be heard..... Lights.....Camera.....Action. -Mica Astion

The new sport at Nauset...

LOOK WHO'S HERE

Ever since we've been here at Nauset the words touchdown, fumble, and field goal have been absent from our vocabulary. But in the fall of 1995, football arrived. The conversations in the courtyard consisted of the newest strains, sprains, and broken bones. Crutches even became common.

Football was not just injuries, however, it gave fifty people a chance to get involved with the school. Although it was new, football pushed its way to popularity. And on the morning of September 30 the stands of the Tech were packed with people fully clothed with Nauset apparel.

Although unsuccessful in their homecoming opener, the Nauset team was able to bring home 5 wins throughout their long season, including a victory over Lowell Catholic. Nauset's newest flavored Warriors left a taste for football in the mouths of Nauset fans, and everyone looks forward to future football seasons.

If we could have stopped the clock,
it's hard to say when that would be.
You've given us so much pleasure
as you've grown from year to year--
So much to be proud of, so much to love.

Now, as new experiences take you to distant places, remember-- We're with you always;
our love remains unchanged.

.....some days you are so old, so quick! However, we will always see the baby inside (and always remember , it's "OK" to let that show)

To Sarah,
Isn't she lovely
Isn't she wonderful
Isn't she precious
Less than one minute old
I never thought through love we'd be making one as lovely as she Isn't she lovely made
from love
Isn't she pretty
truely the angles breath
Oh I'm so happy we have been Heaven blessed
I can't believe what God
has done through us
His given life to one
Isn't she lovely
made from love.

Class History

Class History 1996

How can we top the class history of 1995? Kyle said it all. We've tried and tried to write a history, but no one agreed on what was important or what we wanted to remember. But, here goes.

The memories below will be best savored if read right before your tenth year reunion.

Do you remember the years of drilling, hammering? Each school we went to it seemed was "Under Construction" and yet we never reeped the benefits.

Do you remember our sophomore year Magazine Drive? You know, the one that got suddenly cancelled...

Does anyone remember Mr. Teguis? Or, for that matter Mr. Ballerino?

Do you remember the "NO HATS" rule sophomore year? (If you do, then you will also remember Mr. Teguis.)

Did anyone take their hats off?

Does anyone remember our junior year at all? Oh, was that the year we took the SATs?! No wonder it all seems such a blur.

Do you remember Block Scheduling? 45 more minutes to sleep in class. 45 more minutes for senior privilege. (Weren't we the last class allowed to have senior privilege?)

Do you remember our senior Homecoming Pep Rally? No? Weren't we the most spirited class? Actually, though, that year we surprised ourselves and everyone else when the entire class congregated on the gym floor...united at last?

Do you remember long hours in science classes, and long lines at lunch? That one history class you always fell asleep in - you just couldn't seem to stay awake.

Do you remember the thrill when you got your driver's license and didn't have to take the bus anymore, but then, there was no place to park? And everyday your license plate number was announced over the intercom "Move your car or you'll get towed!"

Do you remember sitting in English class one day in January and looking out the window only to see a pile of toilets outside? Well, hopefully they're back in now...

Do you remember your graduation day...knowing you'll never be here again, knowing you're going your own way...knowing that what remains of these years is simply the memories?

To the Class of 1996:

After months of brainstorming, hours of text proofing, and a senior section that became everyone's "nightmare," The 1995-1996 Nauset Tides Yearbook is finally finished! This years' theme "Looking to the Light" was chosen to give each student a piece of the Cape's history to hold with them forever. To help ensure that Nauset light will always be here to "come home to" $1 from each yearbook sold was given to The Save Nauset Light Fund. The theme also reflects the schools oceanside location which for those of us who are leaving, will be missed, but always remembered.

This year, though scheduling made things difficult, the three of us somehow found the time and energy to pull it all together. We all learned how to work together despite our differences in background, to produce the best book Nauset has ever seen. Our advisers, Judy Hamer and Karen Hepinstall, were very supportive of our creativity and editing ideas. THANK YOU!! We worked hard to meet every deadline on time - even if we were still working when the FEDEX man arrived! Thanks for all of your hard work everyone!!
